Past Pres: Lou Hacker

Non-voting members include the chairperson of each of the remaining committees. The list of committee chairpersons will be included in one of the upcoming newsletters.

Please, contact any of the board members with any concerns or recommendations that you may have. Remember, it's your group!

* To be appointed to fill one of the two positions held by the past president and newsletter, acting editor, Lou Hacker.

President's Message

Dear Friends,

First I would like to thank you for giving me the opportunity to serve as your President in the up coming year. I hope with your help we can accomplish many projects and have alot of fun doing so. I really enjoy being a part of this closely knit family of friends that we seem to be, sharing our rewards and loses of genealogy. Of course more rewards than loses!!

I want to thank everyone that helped with the displays at the June Dairy Days and Stratford Heritage Days. I think we will be seeing a few new faces and family history joining our group because of the enthusiasm that was generated at these events. I am sure we gave them the bug!!

A FEW REMINDERS:

All members should have submitted their 5-generation chart. If you haven't or are unsure please do so again. The plan is to index this book and have it available in our library.

I am also in desperate need of a Program Chairman - The responsibility of this person is not a difficult one. The person in conjunction with the board members decides on topics and speakers, then the program chairman makes initial contact and remaining calls. Anyone with ideas on new speakers can bring their ideas to any of the board members.

The other position that I would like to fill is a person interested in putting a membership package together for new members. We have ideas for what to include it just needs to be put together. PLEASE LET ME KNOW.

As always,

Vicki M. Johnson

FIFTH BIRTHDAY FOR
MARSHFIELD AREA GENEALOGY GROUP

The Marshfield Area Genealogy Group celebrated its fifth birthday at the May meeting with a birthday cake and coffee. If you have remembrances or photographs of those early days, please, submit them to the group historian, Edna Loiselle, 804 S. Palmetto Ave., Marshfield, WI 54449.

With this issue of Kith and Kin, there are two changes. First, you will note the new page heading. While it will not be used for every page, the heading better identifies the source for the reader. Second, Barb Mahler has agreed to serve as Queries Editor. If you have a query, you may give it to her at one of the meetings or send it to:

Barb Mahler, Queries Editor
Kith and Kin
P.O. Box 337
Marshfield, WI 54449

If you have questions about composing a query, Barb will be glad to help you. You may talk with her at one of the meetings, or call her at (715) 384-4742.

CONTRIBUTIONS SOLICITED

Each member of the group is asked to be on the look out for items for the newsletter. You may wish to share with the group how you solved a particular research problem or your experience visiting a particular library or courthouse. On the other hand you may find an article or research tip pertinent to genealogy that would be appropriate for the newsletter. The Board of Directors at the meeting of March 23, 1989 had suggested that a portion of the members be asked to contribute to the newsletter on a rotating basis. Those individuals whose last name begins with "E" through "L" are asked to submit something for the newsletter by June 30, 1989 if they have not already done so. Those who have submitted their contribution ahead of time are greatly appreciated!

QUERIES

---by Barb Mahler

Queries are a valuable tool in the search for genealogical information. The purpose of the Query is to bring together people who are interested in the same line of ancestry or descendents. Kith and Kin is circulated through out Wisconsin. M.A.G.G. members are encouraged to submit queries for inclusion.

The query can be written like the one in the next column. When two persons make contact as the result of a query, matters can be fully discussed between them. Include a reasonable, but not excessive, amount of information about that individual. If you are unable to give a nearly complete description of the person about whom you are looking for information, consider starting with a son or daughter about whom you can give a good description --- then ask for that person's ancestry.

A list of each surname should be included. Each surname should have every letter capitalized. The first line should tell what you want, need, request, are seeking or are looking for. If there is enough space, the last line may express appreciation. Brevity may add to clarity, but DON'T over abbreviate. It has been recommended that a telephone number be included. You should look over previous queries in composing one of your own.

A SAMPLE QUERY:

DOING NORWEGIAN RESEARCH?

Prof. Gerhard B. Naeseth, volunteer for the Vesterheim Genealogical Center, Decorah, Iowa, has been a major force in acquiring the following items of interest for those digging up Norwegian roots.

1. More than 600 reels of microfilm of Norwegian church records. At present the microfilm are housed and serviced in the Microforms Reading Room of the University of Wisconsin Memorial Library.

2. Microfilms of Norwegian passport records and a microfiche record of passports for Bergen, 1874-1924, a gift of the University of Bergen.

3. The 1801 census of Norway on microfiche.

4. The 1875 census of Oslo, a gift of the University of Bergen.

5. A card index to emigrants from Telemark, supplied by a team of the Norwegian Genealogical Society.

6. A copy of a card file listing the emigrants from Rogaland.

7. 22 linear feet of shelving of Norwegian local histories.

8. 21 linear feet of shelving of Norwegian and Norwegian-American family histories.

9. 11 linear feet of indexes to Norwegian Census records, compiled by the University of Tromsø, from which it was acquired.

10. Extensive abstracts of emigration records from Norway, collected by Naeseth.

11. Transcripts of about 300 Norwegian-American cemeteries, made by Naeseth.

12. Transcripts of Norwegians in American census records, 1850, 1860, 1880, made by Naeseth.

13. Transcripts of Norwegians in American passenger lists, 1825-1860, made by Naeseth.

14. 10 linear feet of shelving of Norwegian-American local history material.

15. Transcripts of a number of American church records, made by Naeseth.

16. Card indexes to some of these church records, made by Naeseth.

These items are available [except item 11] at The Vesterheim Genealogical Center, The Norwegian American Museum, 502 W. Water Street, Decorah, Iowa 52101. In addition, items 1 through 9 are in the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin. Items 10 and 11 are in the Memorial Library of the University of Wisconsin.--from "Norwegian Tracts", The Norseman, Sept. 1937 via Northwoods Genealogical Newsletter, Rhineland, Wisconsin, Vol. II, No. 1, Jun. 1, 1988 and Ancestral Diggin's of Lafayette County, Wisconsin, January/February 1989, page 2.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Remember friend, as you pass by,
As you are now, so once was I.
As I am now, some day you'll be
So prepare yourself to follow me.
To follow you I'll not consent
Until I know which way you went.

MISSING KENTUCKY RECORDS

When receiving a reply from a Kentucky county courthouse which says that "records are missing", write to the Kentucky Archives in Frankfort. While some records are missing, many have been moved there because local courthouses have neither the space or facilities for records. Many records have been microfilmed. With changes in county clerks, the present clerk may not be aware that the records have been moved to Frankfort. Write: Kentucky Department of Library and Archives, 300 Coffee Tree Road, P.O. Box 537, Frankfort, KY 40602 when courthouses are unable to locate the records you need.--from San Mateo County Genealogical Society, Vol. 6, #7 via Champaign County Genealogical Society Quarterly, Vol. 10, #4, March 1989 through M. C. G. S. Reporter, Milwaukee County Genealogical Society, Inc., Vol. 20, #2, May 1989, page 34.

AMERICAN LUTHERAN CHURCH RECORDS

Microfilms of the records of nearly half of the congregations comprising The American Lutheran Church are available for rent from the ALC Archives in Dubuque, Iowa. The records consist of baptisms, confirmations, weddings, funerals, etc. and minutes of congregation and council meetings. Permission to use the records must be given by the congregation you are researching. If it has been dissolved, the Archives can provide permission. For more details, write: Robert C. Wiederaenders, Archivist, The ALC, Wartburg Theological Seminary, Dubuque, IA 52001.--from Northwest Suburban Council of Genealogists Newsletter via Lake County IL Genealogical Society, November 1988, and Pedigree Pointers, Stevens Point Area Genealogical Society, Vol. XI, No. 2, page 22.

AMERICAN EVANGELICAL ASSOCIATION
OBITUARIES

Obituaries are available from Der Christliche Botschafter relating to families affiliated with the German Evangelical Association (which later became the Evangelical United Brethren Church and later merged with the United Methodist Church). Written in German, they often give birth dates, places, dates of immigration and marriage, as well as death dates. Obituaries for the years 1836-1879 have been indexed. They are located at Garrett Theological Seminary Library, 2121 Sheridan Road, Evanston, IL 60540. Inquiries can be sent to: Dr. David Koss, 114 Dundee Avenue, Barrington, IL 60010, editor of THE BUSH-MEETING DUTCH.--from Northwest Council of Genealogists Newsletter via Lake County IL Genealogical Society Quarterly, November 1988 and Pedigree Pointers, Stevens Point Area Genealogical Society Newsletter, Vol. XI, No. 2, page 23.

SWEDISH CHURCH REGISTERS

The Swedish church registers are being microfilmed to allow Swedes abroad to do ancestry research by mail. The seven northern provinces have been completed so far. If you provide the name and date of birth for persons born prior to 1895, you will receive five generations of ancestry. The information covers names, residency, occupation and year of marriage. The cost is SEK 500.00 or about $80.00. Send inquiries to: Databasen, P.O. Box 45, S-93055 Harna, SWEDEN.--from American Swedish Institute, Olmstead County Genealogical Society Newsletter, and St. Cloud Area Genealogists via Lake County IL Genealogical Society, November 1988, and Pedigree Pointers, Stevens Point Area Genealogical Society, Vol. XI, No. 2, page 22.

GENEALOGICAL BEATITUDES

Blessed are the great-grandfathers, who saved embarkation and citizenship papers, for they tell when they came.

Blessed are the great-grandmothers, who hoarded newspaper clippings and old letters, for they tell the story of their times.

Blessed are the grandfathers, who filed every legal document, for these provide the proof.

Blessed are the grandmothers, who preserved family Bibles and diaries, for these are our heritage.

Blessed are the fathers, who elect officials that answer letters of inquiry, for to some of these are the only link to the past.

Blessed are the mothers, who relate family tradition and legend to the family, for one of her children will surely remember.

Blessed are the relatives, who fill in family sheets with extra data, for to them we owe our family history.

Blessed is any family, whose members strive for the preservation of records, for theirs is a labor of love.

Blessed are the children, who will never say,
"Grandmother, you have told that old story twice today."
[for they will be able to tell that old story twice another day.]

NEW JERSEY MARRIAGES

New Jersey marriages were recorded from 1665 to 1800 on marriage bonds (approximately 25% of them, the rest were banns). State-wide registration of marriages did not begin until 1848. From that date most marriages are available either from the county clerk, published sources, or on microfilm. Marriages after April 1878 to the present are available at the New Jersey Department of Health, Bureau of Vital Statistics CN 360, Trenton, NJ 08625. This is also the place to write for births after April 1878 and for deaths for the same period. For a free brochure that describes the holdings of the New Jersey

Archives and Record Preservation Center as well as a list of approved researchers write: Bureau of Archives and Records Preservation, New Jersey State Library, 185 West State Street, CN 307, Trenton, NJ 08625. The brochure will include an order form for their published guide to their collection or you may send a check for $5.00 made out to New Jersey General Treasury with your request. If you are researching in New Jersey, it will be a good investment.--from Wake County North Carolina Genealogical Journal and Caldwell County Genealogical Society via Newsletter of Genealogy Society of Southern Illinois, November 1988, and Pedigree Pointers, Stevens Point Area Genealogical Society, Vol. XI, No. 2, page 22.

GENEALOGICAL CORRESPONDENCE

Avoid vague general questions when writing to libraries. (Do you have anything on John Smith?) Keep your questions specific (Do you have published family histories on the Smith family?) They are much easier for the libraries to handle, and you are more likely to get an answer.

To make things even easier, and if your questions can be briefly answered, encourage the library to write the answer in the margin of your letter and have them send it back. The library can respond more quickly as it eliminates the need for someone to compose an entire letter. Offer to pay for photo-copies and of course, include a self addressed stamped envelope.--from Nuggets, Fox Valley Genealogical Society, Appleton, MI, Vol. 7, No. 2, September 1988, p. 70.

* * * * *

S.A.S.E. NOT ENOUGH

When looking for a reply to correspondence, a S.A.S.E. (Self Addressed Stamped Envelope) may not be enough. A S.A.S.E. is generally enclosed to encourage a written response. Today some people are more likely to use the telephone. So why not include your telephone number to encourage a telephone response?

Also a postcard may be more appropriate than a S.A.S.E. When writing to a person, whom you do not know, who may or may not be a relative a postcard may encourage a response. The postcard might have "check off" lines for: (1) related but contact someone else, (2) related write again and (3) not related. When writing to a courthouse or archive consider enclosing a postcard. The postcard might have "check off" lines for: (1) Yes, this record is available, the cost is _____. The record is recorded in Vol. _____ page # _____. (2) No, this record is not available at this office, try _____. and (3) No, this record is not available at this office. (See Kith and Kin, Vol. 3, No. 4, Nov.-Dec. 1986, p. 38.)

WILLING TO SHARE

Esther Carlson, 9 3397 Lincoln Avenue, Marshfield, WI 54449, has two newsletters that she would be willing to lend to other members of the group.

Issues of The Pastfinder, the quarterly newsletter of the Richland County Chapter, OHG, Richland County Ohio for 1985, 1986 and 1987.

Issues of the Medina County Story, Medina County, Ohio for 1983, 1984, 1985 and 1986.

Vicki Johnson, Route 1, Box 220A, Chili, WI 54420, telephone (715) 683-2861, also has several books that she would be willing to share with other members of the group.

Minnesota Historical Society and Archives, Holdings at St. Paul, MN. A good book! The book explains how to access each category whether surname or county.

Minnesota Genealogical Periodical Index. A county guide to the holdings of the Minnesota Genealogy Society.

Guide to Local - Family History at the Newberry Library by Peggy Sinko. The book tells how to use the resources of the Newberry Library.

Pennsylvania Genealogical Research by George K. Schweitzer has listings for each individual county.

Canadian Roots by Angus Baxter is a good book! It has addresses and information about researching any county in Canada.

If you are interested in seeing any of these newsletters or books contact Esther or Vicki at the above addresses or talk with them at the June meeting.

Also if you have books or newsletters in your personal library that you would be willing to share, let us know, and we will spread the news on. Sharing our personal libraries is just one more benefit of belonging to our Group.

DOCUMENTING YOUR RESEARCH

The importance of documenting your research cannot be over stressed. When filling out genealogical forms, use a foot note system (1,2,3...) for each piece of information, and then record your source for the information on the bottom or the blank back of the form. Then if some conflicting information arises in the future, you can quickly and easily check where you obtained the original.--from

GENEALOGICAL COMPUTING

Ancestry, Inc. publisher of Genealogical Computing brings together in the quarterly journal critical reviews and technical notes available for computer applications in genealogy. The journal also features a regular interest group, bulletin board, and data base directories.

Quarterly features include "Beginner's Board," addressing the problems faced by those just getting started in computing genealogy; and "Tech Notes," a column providing discussion of programming and advanced techniques for users wanting to broaden their capabilities beyond the users manual. Utility programs are also explored. Included are timely announcements and discussions of state-of-the-art developments in the field.

Genealogical Computing is available from Ancestry, Inc.,
P.O. Box 476, Salt Lake City, Utah 84110. The cost is $25 per year or $17 for their Ancestry Research Club members.--extracted from
