

Cape Cod 201 W. Doege Street

The original colonial Cape Cod home: During the mid-20th century, the small, uncomplicated Cape Cod shape became popular in suburban rectangular with one or one-and-a-half stories and steeply pitched, gabled roofs. It may have dormers and shutters. The siding is usually clapboard or brick. This home features a low-pitched roof.

Additional information can be found at the Property Records for the City of Marshfield, Wood County, WI: <http://assessordata.org/reports/6941902583094.pdf>